CLASS HIGHLIGHTS:

“Big League” Parent/Child Soccer will teach boys and girls the basic soccer skills in a fun and non-competitive environment. Parents will be actively participating with their child; kicking the soccer ball to each other and being on the playing field. The goal of this program is to expose your child to Soccer and have parents actively participate in the teaching and learning process.

Classes will be led by Ivy League Day Camp’s athletic specialist, John Silva. John has many years facilitating and creating recreational program for a variety of sports, art and music. The past 6 years John continues to develop youth on fields of Manalapan, personal training with patience to beginners. We look forward to creating quality memories for you and your child.
